These men have received $85,000.

Chekiang, 20 groups approximately 750 "
These have received $15,000

Hunan, 52 groups, approximately 1600 "
These have received $32,000

Hupeh 30 groups, approximately 1000 "
These have received $20,000

Anhui 60 groups, approximately 2000 "
These men have received $40,000.

The above figures include several small groups and individuals from other provinces. The totals are 8,350 men among whom there was distributed $170,300.

A few of the groups are still unpaid and these will be dealt with on the 28th inst when the total amount distributed will be $172,000. A few of these men have left Shanghai but their places have more than filled by a few hundreds of rebels who participated in the Shantung trouble who were disbanded there and who have drifted to Shanghai.

Zih Koh Liang the Chief of Police has instructed his detectives to arrest anyone they find selling copper cash to the Japanese.

General Huang Hsing 黃興 is reported to be suffering from lung and throat trouble. It is said that he has lost his voice completely.

General Lu visited the Arsenal on the 26th inst and discussed the proposed transfer of the 10th Division from Woosung. This transfer has been indefinitely postponed.

Notes of the French Banque Industrielle in Shanghai were being refused at some of the exchange shops in Hongkew on the evening of October 26th while others offered to take them at a discount of ten per cent.

Your Obedient Servant,

Captain Superintendent of Police.
